The Financial Adviser / Representative is required to analyse clients' requirements and needs during the provision of advice. The financial advice provided will be based on the information provided by the client and the FSP will not be held liable for any financial advice that was provided in respect of incorrect, inaccurate or incomplete information provided by the client.

Treating Customers Fairly (TCF)

TCF is a set of principles introduced by the Financial Services Board (FSB) to aid and underpin existing financial services legislation aimed at the protection of consumers and clients.

The FSP values its relationship with its clients and acknowledges that without any clients it would not have a business. The TCF principles are embedded in the culture of the FSP and it continuously strives to enhance the quality of its service offering to clients and through its interaction with contracted product suppliers. The TCF principles are the following:

1. Clients/consumers can be confident that they are dealing with a service supplier where the fair treatment of customers is central to the corporate culture.
2. Products and services marketed and sold in the retail market are designed to meet the needs of identified consumer groups and are targeted accordingly.
3. Clients are provided with clear information and are kept appropriately informed before, during and after the point of sale.
4. Where clients receive advice, the advice is suitable and takes account of their circumstances.
5. Clients/consumers are provided with products that perform as the company or service supplier have led them to expect, and the associated service is of an acceptable standard and as they have been led to expect.
6. Clients/consumers to not face unreasonable post-sale barriers imposed by the company or service supplier to change product, switch supplier, submit a claim or make a complaint.

Confidentiality and Protection of Personal Information

All information received from and regarding the client will be treated as confidential by the FSP and its personnel. Such information will only be made available if consent thereto is provided in writing or is required by any law.

The Protection of Personal Information (POPI) Act requires us to inform you how we use and disclose personal information we obtain from you. We are committed to protecting your privacy and will ensure that your personal information is used appropriately, transparently and according to applicable law.

What information we collect:

We collect and process your personal information mainly to provide you with access to the services and products of the suppliers with whom we have contractual agreements in place and to help us improve our services to you. The type of information we collect will depend on the need for which it is collected and will be processed for that specific purpose only. Where possible, we will inform you what information you are required to provide to us and what information is optional. With your consent, we may also supplement the information that you provide to us with information we receive from other suppliers in order to offer you a more consistent and personalized experience in your interactions with us. When you elect to take up offerings from our contracted suppliers they may also require additional information from you and they will be subject to the same privacy regulations as we are subject to.

How we use your information:

We will use your personal information only for the purposes for which it was collected and agreed to with you. This may include:

- Providing products or services to you and to carry out the transaction you requested:
  - For underwriting purposes;
  - Assessing and processing claims;
  - Conducting credit reference searches or verification;
  - Confirming and verifying your identity;
  - For credit assessment and credit management;
  - For purposes of claims history;
  - For the detection and prevention of fraud, crime, money laundering or other malpractice;
  - Conducting market or customer satisfaction research;
  - For audit and record keeping purposes;
  - In connection with legal proceedings.
- Providing our services to you, to carry out the services you requested and to maintain and constantly improve our relationship with you;
- Providing you with communications in respect of the FSP and regulatory matters that may affect you;
- In connection with and to comply with legal and regulatory requirements or when it is otherwise allowed by law.

Disclosure of your information:

We may disclose your personal information to our suppliers whose services or products you elect to use. We have agreements in place to ensure that they comply with our privacy terms and conditions. We may also share your personal information with, and obtain information about you from third parties for the purposes listed above.

We may also disclose your information where we have a duty or a right to disclose in terms of applicable legislation, the law or where it may be necessary to protect our rights.

Safeguarding your information:

The POPI Act requires us to adequately protect the personal information we hold and to avoid unauthorised access and use of your personal information. We will continuously review our security controls and processes to ensure that your personal information is secure. If we need to transfer your personal information to another country for processing or storage we will ensure that any party to whom we pass on your personal information will treat your information with the same level of protection as required from us.

Your rights to access and correction of your personal information:

You have the right to access the personal information we hold about you. You also have the right to ask us to update, correct or delete your personal information. We will take all reasonable steps to confirm your identity before providing details of your personal information or making changes to your personal information. You can contact us at the numbers or addresses listed herein and request the information you would like.

Changes to this Notice

Please note that we may amend this notice from time to time. Please check our website periodically to inform yourself of any changes. In case we do not have a website we will inform you of material changes to this notice.
